EVERYTHING DISC TTT, TRAINER ACCREDITATION AND CERTIFICATION?

The Train the Trainer & Everything DiSC® Certified Trainer process supports trainers and facilitators with competencies & confidence to facilitate Everything DiSC® training within their own organisation. You as a facilitator will get an immersion into the world of Everything DiSC®, experiential learning as a participant and business-applied learning with the latest DiSC® research, with in-depth knowledge of DiSC® and with the Everything DiSC® applications.

WHERE IS DISC USED?

DiSC is used in leadership development, managing people's performance, team development, communications & relationships, conflict resolution, engagement, change & sales.

WHY GET EVERYTHING DISC TRAINER TTT OR CERTIFICATION?

You will gain confidence in understanding and facilitating with Everything DiSC® Workplace, the fundamental DiSC® report.

Experience customising the range of Everything DiSC® Profiles, with workshop handouts, PowerPoint and video.

A facilitator's deep dive into working with the Everything DiSC® Profile reports in the classroom in your short or longer workshops.

Increased knowledge and understanding of DiSC® theory, to help you understand how to interpret and give feedback, using the Everything DiSC® circular model. The training is experiential & practically applied to your businesses challenges.

WE CAN DELIVER IN PUBLIC, IN-HOUSE OR NOW VIRTUALLY!

Confidence in tailoring & bridging the materials, presenting it alongside other materials that you use in your training.

Better skills in customising the materials in a trainer's Facilitation Kit, to meet a variety of organisational needs.

Tools and skills to demonstrate your knowledge and understanding of Everything DiSC® through presentations and hands on learning

After your Training

After going through DiSC® trainer training, you can apply its content to personal, leadership development, team-working, relationships, sales and negotiation training with confidence.

What you will have gained:

Professionalism by using a profile and facilitation system matching corporate standards.

Credibility, using a profile that is validated and constantly updated. Skills & confidence.

High quality relationships with customers, and longer term business.

Practically, your new skills will help you to:

Become proficient in DiSC® application, administration and reporting in your workplace. Be able to present the DiSC® theory and use the DiSC® facilitation materials.

Understand validity, reliability and norms for DiSC® Circumplex profiles.

Develop your people-reading skills to transfer these to learners.

Plan and run training using the DiSC® kit components, bridging with your other development.

The bottom line for you as a DiSC® facilitator is:

You have access to our best-selling DiSC® assessments, tested for validity and reliability and used by over 45 million people.

An online assessment-delivery system with efficient features for customer management is on your screen.

Ourselves, Performance Partners as your partner, who are committed to support your learning & business application.
